Cambodia hospital staff gather around beds that were provided by the Medical Supplies Network, Inc.

Recently MSNI donated a motorize wheelchair to Dorothy Wahl of the Oswego Rotary Club. The chair was purchased for $19,753.99 in 2012 and was donated to MSNI earlier this year. Dorothy says it will make her life more comfortable and safer.

Interact students from Coffeyville recently helped out at the MSNI warehouse. Interact is a tremendous resource for Rotary clubs as a supplement to their members on their scheduled MSNI service days.

It doesn't take a lot of people to do a good job. Just ask the ladies from Eureka Springs.

In April Rogers Early Risers and Rogers Downtown served MSNI warehouse. The group includes both Rotarians and spouses, which is fairly normal for an MSNI service event.

Past MSNI Secretary Dan Leis and his wife Katy sort and pack supplies along with other Rogers Early Risers.
